3.3. Rules for appealing the assessment: each student has the right to appeal the received assessment, for which, first of all, he should apply to his teacher, and if necessary - to the head of the department, Professor Karpenko K.I. (main building, 3-rd floor, room 117; by e-mail ki.karpenko@knu.edu.ua).

4. DISCIPLINE POLICY

The syllabus and the process of teaching the discipline itself takes into account the possibility of full involvement of students with special educational needs. The Philosophy Department is a space free from any discrimination, friendly to people with special educational needs.

Academic expectations from students. Course requirements

It is expected that students will attend all lectures and practical classes. If they miss a lesson, you need to work it out. Practice is done online and / or offline in accordance with the "Regulations on the procedure for students of Kharkiv National Medical University" and in accordance with the schedule of practice, posted on the information stand of the department / on the page of the department on the Moodle platform.

Written and homework must be completed in a timely manner, and if students have questions, they can contact the teacher in person or by e-mail, which the teacher will provide in the first practical classes.

During the lecture, students are recommended to enter notes of classes and keep a sufficient level of silence. Asking questions to the lecturer is perfectly normal.

Practical training

Active participation in the discussion is encouraged, students should be ready to understand in detail the material, ask questions, express their point of view, discuss. During the discussion, the following points are important:

- respect for colleagues,
- tolerance towards others and their experiences,
- sensitivity and impartiality,
- the ability to disagree with opinions, but respect the personality of the opponent,
- careful argumentation of your opinion and the courage to change your position under the influence of evidences,
- I statements, when a person avoids unnecessary generalizations, describes her/ his feelings and formulates her/ his wishes based on their own thoughts and emotions,
- acquaintance with primary sources is compulsory.

Creative approach in its various forms is encouraged. Students are expected to be interested in participating in Ukrainian and international conferences, competitions and other events.

Labor protection

During the first class of the course, the basic principles of labor protection will be explained by conducting appropriate instructions. It is expected that every one should know where the emergency exit closest to the audience is, where the fire extinguisher is located, how to use it, etc.

In-class behavior. Basic “dos and don'ts”

It is important for students to follow the rules of proper behavior at the university. These rules are general for everyone, they also apply to the professors, lecturers and staff, and do not fundamentally differ from generally accepted norms.

During classes it is allowed:

- to leave the class for a short time, if necessary and with the permission of the teacher (also online)

- to drink soft drinks;

- to take pictures of presentation slides;

- to participate in the class actively (see Academic Expectations).

It is prohibited:

- to eat (this does not apply to persons whose special medical condition requires another, in this case medical confirmation is required)

- to smoke,

- to drink alcoholic and even low-alcohol drinks or drugs;

- to use obscene language or words that offend the honor and dignity of colleagues and faculty;

- to play gambling;

- to make harm to the material and technical base of the university (damage inventory, equipment; furniture, walls, floors, litter premises and territories)

- to make noise, shout or listen to loud music during the class.

The procedure for informing about the change in the syllabus. The teacher is obliged to inform the students about the changes made to the syllabus. The updated syllabus is posted on the official website of the university in accordance with the established procedure.

5. ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Training within the discipline takes place in accordance with the Regulations on Academic Integrity and Ethics of Academic Relations at Kharkiv National Medical University (see http://files.knmu.edu.ua:8181/upload/redakt/doc_uchproc/polog_ad_etyka_text.pdf).

All facts of violation of academic integrity by both the student and the teacher can be submitted to the Commission on Academic Integrity, Ethics and Conflict http://files.knmu.edu.ua:8181/upload/redakt/doc_uchproc/polog_ad_etyka_text.pdf).

Management (see

The Philosophy Department maintains zero tolerance for plagiarism. Students are expected to constantly raise their awareness of academic writing. The first lessons will provide information on what to consider plagiarism and how to properly conduct research and scientific research. The use of electronic gadgets is allowed only for educational purposes and with the permission of the teacher.
